MY IDEAL PET - THE GERBIL

I would like to tell you about the gerbil. A gerbil is like a hamster but it has a long tail which has not got fur. Another difference is that a hamster lives alone whereas a gerbil is a friendly creature and prefers to live with others. I am going to tell you why I consider the gerbil an ideal pet. Firstly: they are very clean, you wouldn't be worried about this. Secondly: they don't eat a lot. You can give them bread, milk, and all kinds of fruit and vegetables like grapes, bananas, tomatoes. Thirdly: it is such an amusing pet. If you have a baby or a young child, they can play with the gerbil because it is not dangerous and children will enjoy it very much. Finally, the gerbil is cheaper than any other pet. Next, I would like to give you some important advice about how to look after your gerbil.

1 If I were you I would buy a big cage in order to give the gerbil enough space to run.

2 Gerbils hate water. A famous scientist advised me that gerbils should never be cleaned/bathed with water. I suggest you should buy "Nature" magazine, which will give you more advice about how you should take care of your gerbil.

I have been informed that this school has the intention to allocate some resources to the enhancement of its video-library catalogue with the acquisition of some videos for the use of EFL students. After being asked to write a report on this issue, I would like to suggest buying films, as I think this is the most enjoyable way to learn English.

Since most films are American and we are interested in the teaching of British English, we should be careful when choosing them. So, I would like you to consider the buying of some British comedies, like those Ealing Studios made in the late forties and the fifties. We may find very good actors playing them, and humorous plots that will make students follow these films without getting bored.

My personal experience should be added to the arguments in their favour, as I enjoyed watching them while improving my listening abilities. For all these reasons, I would recommend purchasing a selection of British comedy films for the school's video library.

Dear Sir

I recently stayed at your hotel for two nights and had a very unsatisfactory time there. My room was kind of small and it had no windows at all. Well, this is completely unacceptable! Surely you would agree that it is essential to have natural light, even in a hotel room.

Furthermore, the hotel breakfast was really disgusting. The coffee wasn't warm enough to drink and it tasted awful. On top of that, there was no fresh fruit and the bread rolls were so old they were like bricks.

On paying the final bill, I found I had been charged more than the quoted rate for the room. However, when I queried this, your staff refused to alter the bill. Your hotel messed up big time and I am therefore writing to you to request a partial refund.

I look forward to hearing from you without delay.

Love

Report on: Public Transport

1. Introduction

The aim of this report is to summarize the different ways in which you can travel from one place to another by public transport.

2. Buses

You have the chance to travel by bus. This means of transport is not expensive and there are a lot of different lines of buses covering the whole city. On the other hand, if there is a traffic jam, it can take you a lot of time to get to the place that you are going to.

3. Trains

This public transport is cheaper and faster than the bus. The main disadvantage is that it is not very safe.

4. Subway

The subway is the way to get to a place more quickly. It is safe and it is not so expensive either. A lot of workers use it, so you needn't get worried about the people who travel in it.

In conclusion, you have many ways to travel. You only have to choose the best way depending on the situation.

Dear Competition Director

First of all, let me introduce myself. My name is Lorenza Sanchez. I am sixteen years old, and I am Mexican. I have lived here in England for 5 years now, so I speak English very well, as well as Spanish, and a moderate amount of French.

I would very much like to work for you in The Sports Competition this coming March, for the following reasons.

Firstly, I am passionate about sports, and since my father and brother have extensive knowledge of various sports, I too know a lot about soccer, football, tennis and car racing.

Secondly, I am an experienced hockey player and also enjoy playing volleyball.

Furthermore, I would like to be involved in working with people from different countries because I am particularly interested in learning about other cultures. I believe I would be an effective member of your international team of helpers, as I am a good communicator and I have a lot of stamina, so I can work long hours.

Please consider my application. I promise I will not let you down.

Yours truly

Hi Maria,

Thanks for your letter, I was starting to wonder if you'd forget about our holidays together. I can't wait till the 2nd! I'm sure we're going to have a great time. I'm supposed to get to Luton airport at half past eleven in the morning, but you know how air traffic works so you'd better be there at midday so you don't have to wait for too long. Don't worry about not recognising me, as I haven't changed too much. I'm just about 20cm taller and I've grown whiskers on my chin, which is quite an uncommon look. Besides, I'll recognise you anyway.

Spending a week in Scotland sounds really weird, but I'd rather be prepared for it. I've heard the weather is very chilly there and it rains all the time, is that true? So, what kind of clothes should I wear there? Probably warm jumpers and a waterproof coat would do, don't you think so? By the way, I reckon a nice present we could take to your cousins would be a bottle of Spanish red wine, which is famous for its lip-smacking taste.

Anyway, I've been told the coast of Sussex is one of the best in the British Isles and, as you live quite near to it, I thought we might enjoy staying there for a few days. Write back and tell me what you think.

Lots of love,

There is no doubt that the gold medal for thriller-making goes to Hollywood. They really know how to keep your attention through a whole movie. Actually, most of the successful thrillers are made in Hollywood.

So, when you find an excellent thriller that is made in a different country, it's a very positive experience, because you get amused but also gladly surprised by the cultural differences. 'Tiempo de Valientes' is a good example of this.

'Tiempo de Valientes' is an Argentinian production which contains all the basic elements of a fine thriller, and all of them are used perfectly to maintain your attention in the story. But it is also a funny movie. The characters are created from an Argentinian cultural point of view, and the movie has a very good sense of humor.

Certainly 'Tiempo de Valientes' is a high-quality thriller which I strongly recommend seeing if you are interested in international cinema. And there is no doubt that with this kind of production Argentina will be fighting for the silver medal in thriller-making.

Do you prefer listening to live music or recorded music? Nowadays we have different choices when we want to listen to music. We can enjoy a whole afternoon sitting on a sofa listening to our favourite group or we can go to a live concert where thousands of people will be screaming and fainting, but you will have the pleasure to hear somebody you like playing the guitar or singing in front of you. If you are with a group of friends you will enjoy a meeting listening to music at home, and this has the advantage that you can hear as many different CDs as you want. However, on the other hand, it is amazing to go to a live concert and feel how the adrenaline bursts into* your body when the band is playing. In conclusion we can say that it depends on the situation when you prefer recorded music to live music. If you want to be relaxed, nothing is better than a recorded tape, but if you want to feel some excitement, nothing is better than a live concert.

(* Note that a better choice of phrasal verb here would be runs through, although the examiner was impressed that the candidate knew bursts into!)
